

Publication of policy for the protection of personal information (the inserts describe the policy of the Progressive Canadian Party)

Subsection 385(2) of the Act is amended by adding the following after paragraph (j)

:

(k)

the party's policy for the protection of personal information, including a statement indicating the types of personal information that the party collects and how it collects that information,

(i)

Name, Address, email, Home Phone, Cellphone

That information is collected when the Member is making online credit card payments of annual membership fees and donations into the Party's commercial bank account. In order to download the data into the USB stick mentioned below one must correctly enter three coded lines, including a password.

(ii)

) a statement indicating how the party protects personal information under its control,

Only the Chief Agent has access to the membership's personal information.

All that information has been placed on a USB stick. It is plugged into the CA's computer only when it is being used.

(iii)

a statement indicating how the party uses personal information under its control and under what circumstances that personal information may be sold to any person or entity,

The personal information is used only for individual contact with Members.

The personal information will NEVER be sold to anyone!

(iv)

a statement indicating the training concerning the collection and use of personal information to be given to any employee of the party who could have access to personal information under the party's control,

Until the Party doubles in size it will not be necessary to provide help to the CA.

When we get there a one word description is sufficient, i.e. Adequate

.

(v)

a statement indicating the party's practices concerning

(A)

) the collection and use of personal information created from online activity, and

(B)

its use of cookies, and

The Party will never collect such data and we do not use cookies.

(vi)

the name and contact information of a person to whom concerns regarding the party's policy for the protection of personal information can be addressed;

Mr. Allen Gullon, Chief Agent, PC Party

218 Twyford St., Ottawa, ON

Phone: (613) 738 -8946; email: al@alsaces.ca

and

(l)

the address of the page — accessible to the public — on the party's Internet site where its policy for the protection of personal information is published under subsection (4).

<https://progressivecanadian.ca/component/content/article/7-examples/203-publication-of-policy-for-the-protection-of-personal-information>